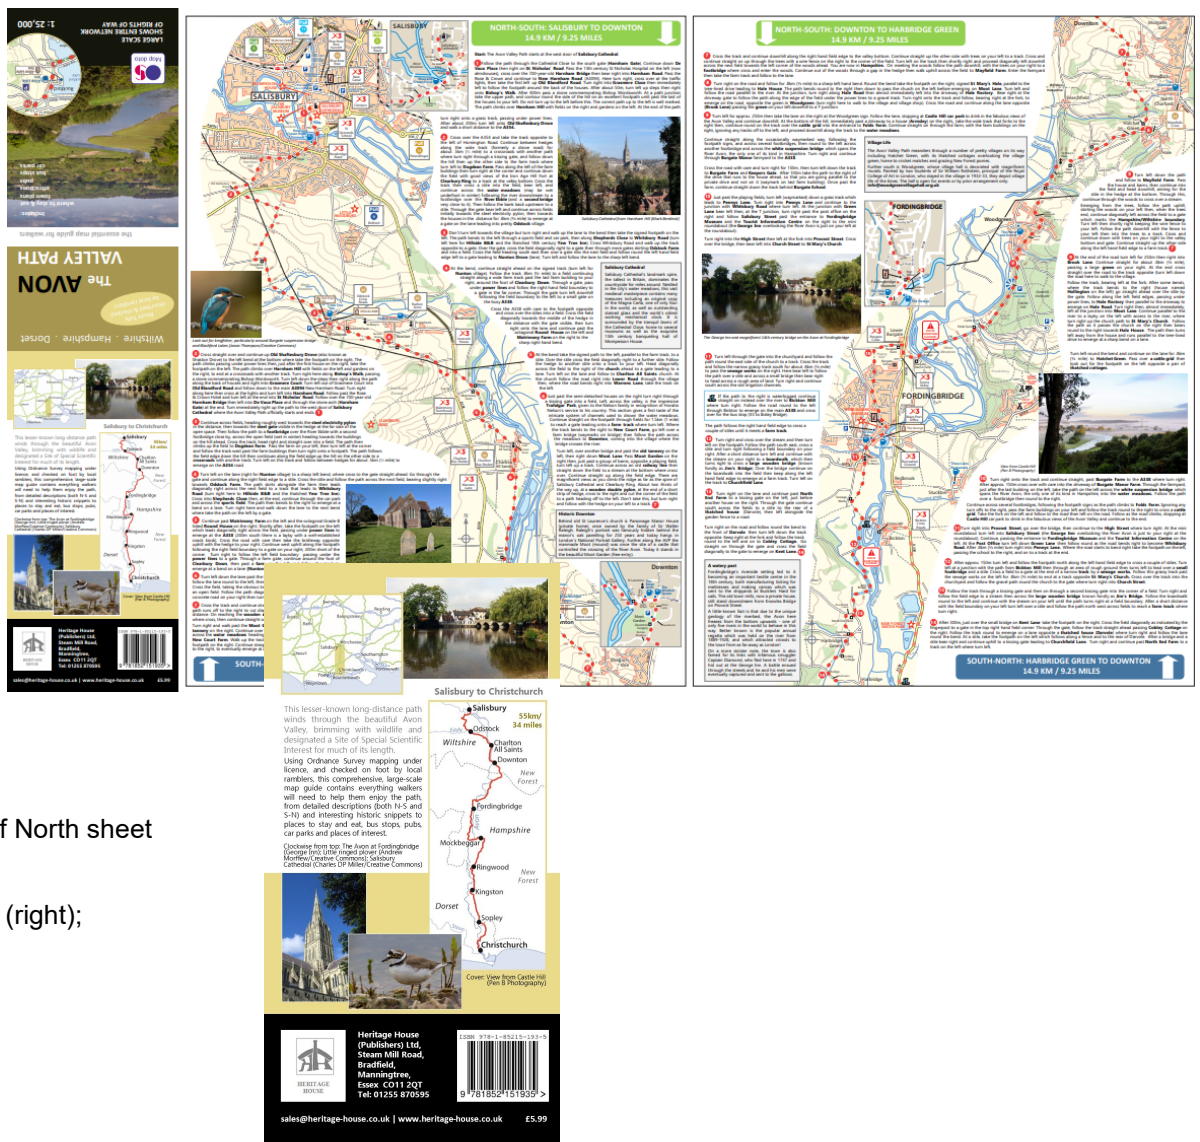

MAP OVERVIEW

This lesser-known long-distance path winds through the beautiful Avon Valley, brimming with wildlife and designated a Site of Special Scientific Interest for much of its length.

Using Ordnance Survey mapping under licence, and checked on foot by local ramblers, this comprehensive, large-scale map guide contains everything walkers will need to help them enjoy the path, from detailed descriptions (both N-S and S-N) and interesting historic snippets to places to stay and eat, bus stops, pubs, car parks and places of interest.

Key features include:

- Large scale (1: 25,000)
- Clear, OS-sourced mapping
- Detailed route directions both N-S and S-N
- Route fully checked on foot by local walkers
- Shows entire network of rights of way plus gradients
- Sections prone to waterlogging highlighted and suggested alternative south routes shown
- Includes information on places of interest along the route
- Suggestions for accommodation and eating out
- Six inset town plans showing route through populated areas
- Key bus stops marked along and near the route
- Shows car parks, park and ride services, visitor attractions, pubs, campsites, nature reserves, and viewpoints
